

Musicians Mobile Rate Sheet

Our teacher rates are based on:

- Optimal results that a teacher can impart in their lesson time
- Teacher expertise
- Customer satisfaction

Instructors who teach multiple instruments are in higher demand to families because they can save families multiple music studio trips and schedule planning.

Music Directors have shown that they can deliver optimal results in less time with beginning through advanced students. They also mentor our teachers, help to organize our shows, and guide our school direction. They have developed their teaching expertise through 8 years of positive results with Musicians Mobile students.

Senior Music Instructors can also help beginners and intermediate students with an added value of expertise enabling them to maximize the impact of each lesson.
